Congressman Pence attended President Bush's speech today to the American Legion, which is headquartered in Indianapolis. The president spoke about reforms that are needed at Walter Reed Army Medical Center and other VA hospitals and the Global War on Terror. The full text of the President's remarks can be found here .