Congressman Pence was highlighted in today's Muncie Star Press' editorial .

Rep. Mike Pence, R-Columbus, has said enough.

To his credit, and no doubt much criticism, Pence made the gutsy move to announce he will not be making any appropriation requests for Fiscal Year 2009.

It is encouraging to see two Hoosier lawmakers act on principle, even though their position might not be popular with constituents. Read the entire editorial HERE .