Congressman Pence explains his decision to step down from his position in the House leadership as Deputy Majority Whip in order to focus on his new job as Chairman of the Republican Study Committee.