Congressman Pence gave the following special order speech regard stem cell research, in light of President Obama's recent executive order allowing federal tax dollars to go towards research that destroys human life: