Congressman Pence gave the following one minute floor speech regarding energy policy, particularly the national energy tax that Democrats have proposed in Congress - noting that it will have a disproportionate impact on the Midwest: