Congressman Mike Pence announced today that he is launching Operation Holiday Greeting, an opportunity for Hoosiers to communicate holiday wishes directly to troops serving in Afghanistan.

Pence will be leading a Congressional delegation trip to Afghanistan next month to visit with Afghan President Hamid Karzai, review military operations and evaluate progress in the war on terror.

Pence is asking Hoosiers to send him cards with their expressions of gratitude, personal wishes, words of encouragement and promises of prayer for the troops. Pence will distribute the cards to the soldiers and sailors he meets.

Details:
Hoosiers wishing to participate can send their cards, postmarked no later than November 23, 2004, to:
