Washington, D.C.- Congressman Mike Pence will be joined in his office Tuesday by former Members of Congress and their families to unveil portraits of members who have served the people of east central Indiana. “The people of east central Indiana have been served by outstanding Members of Congress...

Contact: Matt Lloyd

PENCE, FORMER MEMBERS TO UNVEIL PORTRAITS OF PREDECESSORS

Washington, Jan 26, 2004 - Washington, D.C.- Congressman Mike Pence will be joined in his office Tuesday by former Members of Congress and their families to unveil portraits of members who have served the people of east central Indiana.

“The people of east central Indiana have been served by outstanding Members of Congress,” said Pence. “This project pays tribute to these fine individuals and is a tradition that I hope will continue.”

The project honors 24 former Members of Congress who represented the east central Indiana region that Pence now represents. Their portraits will adorn the lobby of Pence’s Washington, DC office when they are unveiled Tuesday.

WHO: Congressman Mike Pence and former Members of Congress and their families from east central Indiana

WHAT: Predecessor portrait unveiling

WHEN: Noon, Tuesday, January 27, 2004

WHERE: Congressman Mike Pence’s office
1605 Longworth House Office Building

###